

Your School Needs You!

Do you have skills that you could share in school?

We are aware that many of our parents/ relatives / carers have fantastic skills to offer. We already have parents actively involved in school, which really enhances the children's learning and enjoyment of school, such as the wonderful team who make up the Parent Teacher Association (PTA) and our parent helpers that come into class.

We would love to hear from any parents who feel they have skills to share and have some time to help out in school.

We would like you to complete the form below if you are able to offer any help. If you are unable to help then we quite understand, and there is no need to complete the form. However, if you are able to be called upon, albeit rarely, please do let us know.
